RATES and RESERVATIONS

RESERVATION CRITERIA

Dogs staying here roam freely in my home. Boarding here is reserved for dogs who are:

- Dog-friendly — and —
- have reasonably good manners.

The atmosphere here is relaxed and friendly all day long. "Calm and quiet" is rewarded. The dogs will bark when someone new enters the house, but that kind of excitement is brief. I encourage dogs to settle down and enjoy their new friends quietly... and they do.

We definitely PLAY here, but "play" is kept light and fun and is not allowed to get out of control.

For the protection of your dog and mine:

- Larger dogs MUST be especially easy-going — that means gentle, tolerant, and able to relax.
- Chronic barkers cannot be accepted.
- Intact males cannot be accepted.
--- Exception: dogs too young to neuter.
- Dogs who "play too rough" or who become excessively rambunctious in the house cannot be allowed to return.

For the protection of my home and property:

- Dogs who chew destructively on items other than toys cannot be allowed to return.
- Dogs must be housebroken to enjoy full freedom indoors; otherwise they'll be put on a "potty" schedule and spend whatever time necessary crated.

A behavior evaluation for ALL first-time dogs is required BEFORE reservations can be accepted:

- At my home by appointment only — No charge

Once your dog is accepted, you will be provided with the following forms:

- Service Agreement which grants me your permission to care for your dog,
- Dog Care Questionnaire to help you be sure to tell me what I need to know about your dog's feeding and care,
- Healthcare Protocols which outline vaccination requirements and healthcare policies.
